

The Daily Gazetteer.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17. 1737.

No. 696.

ESTERDAY arriv'd a Mail from Holland; but no Confirmation of the late Rumour of the Victory over the Turks near Bender, nor one Syllable relating to it in our Advices either from Vienna, Poland, or Petersburg. On the contrary, a Russian Officer, who arrived the 19th ult. in the Imperial Camp in Hungary, from Count Munich's Army, says there was no Foundation for the Report. And the Couriers that were sent from the Plenipotentiaries at Nimirow, to know the Truth of it, have made their Report that the News is entirely false; that since the Taking of Oczakow, the Russians and Turks have had no other Engagement, but what happened lately between Two of their Detachments near the Nierer; that Count Munich's Army was still a great Way off of Bender; and that this Place, instead of being taken, was, on the contrary, in a very good State of Defence.

The freshest Letters from Petersburg, which are of the 23d ult. O. S. say, That the Night before an Express arrived from the Count de Munich, with Advice, 'That the Russian Army under his Command was come to encamp on this Side of the Bog, to consume the Forage, of which there is great Plenty, and at the same Time to observe the Motions of the Seraskier of Bender. That a Detachment of 2000 Turks fell upon the Rear-Guard of our Army, but were vigorously repulsed by the Cossacks of the Don, after they had killed the greatest Part of them. That above 1000 dead Bodies were found under the Ruins of Oczakow, besides those formerly mentioned; and that there were also found 20 Cannon and some Mortars, which the Turks had bury'd under-ground.'

As to the Conferences at Nimirow, it appears by Advices from both Petersburg and Vienna, that the Turkish Plenipotentiaries are in earnest for a Peace.

The Letters from Vienna, which are of the 31st ult. say, they have an Account from Croatia, that Count Esterhazy the Ban of that Province, having sent some Troops to invest a little Place on the Frontiers of Bosnia, thought fit to abandon his Design, upon Advice that a considerable Body of Turks was on the March to relieve it: And that the Croatians of that Body, which was commanded by the Colonel Kaunach, who were thought to have been killed or taken by the Turks near Vamp, are almost all return'd to their Colours; which is one Proof, that if those Croatians had stood their Ground, and had not abandon'd the 600 Men of regular Forces, the latter would not, in all Probability, have been cut to Pieces.

The last Letters from Poland, by the way of Hamburg, say, that the new Grand Vizier is marched with his whole Army to meet the Russians; so that the News of a Battle may be shortly expected.

From Belgrade they write, that the Siege of Widdin being deferred till next Spring, the Admiral Palavicini has received Orders to unrig the 6 Men of War with which he was to have attack'd that Place on the Side of the Danube. Among the many Reasons that have prevailed for deferring the Siege of Widdin, one of the chief, as they write from Vienna, is an Apprehension that Distempers would be rife in the Army, by reason of the moist and foggy Air that they have in Bulgaria during the Autumn.

Some Letters by way of Vienna from Constantinople say, the Grand Seignior set out for Adrianople the 16th of July last O. S. for fear of the Resentment of the Populace; but it needs Confirmation. There's Advice by the same Letters, that there have been great Disputes among the Turkish Clergy, about granting the Permission desired by the Janissaries to drink Wine during the War with the Christians, and that the same was at length decided in their Favour, and a License for that end delivered by the Multi, importing, That the Grand Seignior's Troops might, without derogating from the Law of Mahomet, be allowed to drink Wine during the War against the Unbelievers, provided they made a moderate Use of such License, and drank Wine only to enable them better to support the Fatigues of the Campaign.

Letters of the 9th Inst. O. S. from Paris, mention the vast Preparations making for the Embassy of the Marquis de Mirepoix to Vienna. They say his Retinue is to consist of no less than 200 Persons, Gentlemen, Secretaries, Officers of his Household, Pages and Domesticks; so that it will be one of the most magnificent that has been seen for a long Time. Mean Time, they are sending to Vienna, for his Table, 1500 Mark Weight of Plate, 70000 Weight of Furniture, &c. 3 Coaches of extraordinary Magnificence, and a very fine Berlin; besides 52,500 Bottles of Wine of all Sorts for his Cellar, and great Store of other Provisions.

We see in the Letters of the 2d Instant from Geneva, the following Extract of a Letter, dated the 24th ult. from M. Amelot, Secretary of State in France, to M. de la Closure, the French Resident at Geneva.

SIR,

I received your Letters of the 13th, 18th, and 19th Instant, whereby you inform me of the Insurrection of the Burghers of Geneva against the Magistrates: And his Majesty highly approves of your Behaviour upon this Occasion. 'Tis to be hoped, that the Confidence which both the Parties have reposed in you, will put it in your Power to bring about an entire Pacification. Be sure to let both the Magistrates and Burghers know, how much concerned the King is to hear of the Domestic Troubles in their Government; and how desirous he is, to see the Tranquility of a Republick restored, which has been so long his Ally. It seems, by your last Letter, that the same Ferment is still subsisting; and that the Aim of the Burghers is to establish a Government merely Democratical; which certainly would not be for the Advantage of the Republick, which has subsisted 200 Years under the Authority of Magistrates: But the Alterations which are contriving would be such a Subversion, as might be attended with the Ruin of the Magistracy. It were necessary, in the first Place, to lay the Storm, by making the Citizens entirely secure, to recall all those who are removed out of the City, and particularly all the Members of the Little and Grand Council; and to prohibit, under the severest Penalties, all Acts of Violence, Oppression, and Injury, either betwixt Private Persons, or between the Parties.

The Person lately mentioned to be in Trouble at Paris, for having a Lodge of Free-Masons at his House, is said to be one Chapelot, a Wine-Merchant, who was fined 1000 Livres for the said Offence, and had his Shop shut and walled up.

Some Letters from Vienna say, that a Plague rages at Bender, and that the Turks therefore talk of leaving the Place.

The Sessions-Paper published Yesterday is a most scandalous Impostion upon the Publick. The Whole should be published for Six pence, and instead thereof it is split into two Parts, and a Piece of a Trid given, on Purpose to draw in People to buy the Second Part at Six-pence more: tho' that would be a sufficient sufficient Price for the Whole. This Practice has been frequently used of late; but it is hoped a Stop will be put to it, by those who have Power to do it. The whole Sessions Paper, as long, and printed as well, and upon as good Paper, as the present, used formerly to be sold for Two-pence or Three-pence.

We hear from Frome in Somersetshire, that last Monday Mr. Wilson going from thence to Nony in that County, was attacked (tho' at Noon Day) within half a Mile of Nony, by two Foot-Pads, who robbed him of 40 Shillings and some Halfpence; and not being contented with their Booty, beat him in such a cruel Manner, that his Life is despaired of.

Yesterday one William Pooley picked a Gentleman's Pocket, by the Corner of St. Martin's Lane, of a Silk Handkerchief, and tho' he actually took him in the Fact, and never quitted his Hold, he had the Impudence to give the Gentleman's Handkerchief over his Shoulder to one of his Accomplices, for which he was brought before Col. The Scheming Punch-maker of Ludgate-hill has advertised, that he'll take out another Licence (notwithstanding all the Incumbrances) and continue the making of Punch, &c in humble Expectation (as he says) of the short Continuance of the Act about Spirituous Liquors; a sure Sign that such is his Desire, he has new-fronted his House in a Grand Dutch Manner; between the several Stories are cut in Capital Letters, a Monumental Inscription purporting his perpetual Intention to continue the making of Punch, with this most insolent Motto,

THE MOST NOBLE ELIXIR, FOR HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE or VAPOURS in WOMEN.

IN three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confounded with terrible Perturbation, Anxieties, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

It's surprising to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleasurable Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwell upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of undisturb'd Spirits, and causes bright Glares of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly relieved both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, steady, serene, and gay thoughts, stand as much amaz'd that they could be train'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incarnments, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE, or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved Useless, is incomprehensible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, or 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
